

The interference in the 2 - 80 megahertz area will wipe out communications over those frequencies, especially for ham and shortwave broadcast reception. Please find a way to have no interference or not run broadband on power lines.

Thanks,

John